

Contents

Character map	2
Introduction	3
Tips for writing essays	15
Essay 1: 'Elizabeth's children react differently to their backgrounds, but each evinces a yearning for their heritage.' Do you agree?	17
Essay 2: ' Home focuses on the importance of the love and support that close family members can give each other, in particular siblings.' How do the siblings in Home support each other, and what effect does the severing of these relationships have on them?	21
Essay 3: 'Elizabeth felt that she had lived as three different people within her skin.' How is Elizabeth's identity fragmented by other people's actions?	26
Essay 4: 'Carole Dyball is one of the few non-indigenous characters in Home who is not racist.' Discuss.	30
Essay 5: ' Home shows that past injustices can only be reconciled by looking to the future.' Discuss.	35
Essay 6: ' Home shows that a person's acceptance into a community should never depend on the colour of their skin.' Discuss.	39
Essay 7: 'The bitterness of what was wrong, what had been cast upon my family, is softened by a sense of triumph.' ' Home shows that hope for the future can survive terrible losses in the past.' Discuss.	44
Essay 8: ' Home demonstrates that a connection to place is crucial to a sense of belonging.' Discuss.	48
Essay 9: 'In the rediscovery of their heritage and land, characters in Home find the comfort that their abused pasts have denied them.' Discuss.	52
Essay 10: 'She would try to remember the stories, the songs. Here, for a fleeting moment, she was still Garibooli.' Discuss.	56
Practice topics	60

