

TEXT J: How to operate a radio

Background information

EAL teacher Ms Papadakis is speaking to her Year 10 EAL class about how to operate a radio.

QUESTIONS

a Who is the audience for this speech? 1 mark b What is the first step to operate a radio? 1 mark c What does the red and green area on the battery meter indicate? 1 mark d According to Ms Papadakis, which type of antenna is better? Provide a reason for your answer. 2 marks

e Provide two examples of language used in the speech that show that the speaker is giving directions or instructions. 2 marks f Ms Papadakis makes some suggestions to the audience about listening to the radio at night with an external antenna. Give two examples of words or phrases that show that she is making suggestions. 2 marks

1. _____

2. _____

g Why does Ms Papadakis want students to learn how to use a radio? 1 mark
