TEXT B: Data security

Background information

Aisha Saad works for Secufort, a company that sells security software for computers. Aisha is presenting a talk on privacy and the internet at a national technology conference.

QUESTIONS

a Why does Aisha think her audience is 'smart' when it comes to technology?   1 mark

_____

b Identify two groups of people that Aisha suggests might try to access personal data online.   2 marks

1. _____

2. _____

c What is two-factor authentication?   2 marks

_____

_____

d Complete the table below, showing some steps that Aisha suggests people take to protect their data, and why.   3 marks

Step	Reason
Change passwords often.
	They contain important security updates.
Reduce social media use.

e How does Aisha show that she thinks internet security is important? Give one example of her language and one example of her delivery.   2 marks

Language: _____

Delivery: _____