

Conditions of Entry for Insight's Creative Writing Competition

1. Who can enter?

You must be enrolled in Years 7–12 in Australian secondary education to take part in this competition.

2. How many times can you enter?

You can only submit one entry.

3. Theme

There is an optional theme that you may use to inspire your submission; however, you are not required to write to this or any other theme.

The optional theme is: Beauty in the unknown.

4. Categories

There will be six categories:

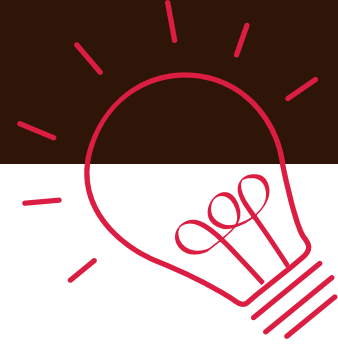

- Year 7
- Year 8
- Year 9
- Year 10
- Year 11
- Year 12.

You must only submit an entry in the category that corresponds to your current year level or homeschool equivalent.

5. Original work

Entries must be your own original work. This means that your work must not be written by, or in conjunction with, your friends, family, teachers or parents, or with the use of AI services such as ChatGPT.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated. All entries will be subject to plagiarism and AI detection tests. You will be disqualified from the competition if any work is found to be plagiarised or written using AI services. Entries that have been previously published or submitted in any other writing competition will not be accepted.

6. Format of entry

You must submit your work according to the guidelines listed below.

- Your entry must be a creative piece (e.g. short story, poem, script) written in English. (Expository writing, such as essays, will not be accepted.)
- Your story must have a title.
- The text and title font must be 12pt Times New Roman. Your story must be typed with double line spacing.
- Do not write your name on your creative piece or in the 100-word statement.
- If you are submitting an electronic copy, please provide a Word document or PDF. JPEGs or other image formats will not be accepted.
- If you are submitting a hard copy, please use A4 white paper.
- We will not return your story once you have submitted it. It is your responsibility to make a copy of your work.

7. Word count

The length of your creative piece must not exceed 1400 words. There is no minimum word count.

8. Written statement

All entries must be accompanied by a 100-word statement that addresses at least one of the following:

- your motivation for writing
- the creative inspiration for your entry
- your aspirations for future writing.

This written statement will be used to help determine the winner of a special award that honours the legacy of a founding member of Insight Publications, Iris Breuer.

The Iris Breuer Writing Award will take both the creative piece and the written statement into account. This award seeks to recognise and celebrate young people's engagement with and passion for writing and literature.

10. Submission dates

Entries will be accepted from 5 pm on 18 March until 11:59 pm on 1 September.

SUBMISSIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AFTER THE CLOSING DATE.

11. Submission form

All entries must have the submission form attached.

If you are under 18 years of age, your age must be verified by a parent's or guardian's signature on the submission form. Teachers may not complete submission forms on behalf of students. We recommend that a parent or guardian check the submission form upon completion.

Return your submission form, together with your creative piece and 100-word statement, via email (as attachments) or post (details on submission form).

ONLY ENTRIES WITH FULLY COMPLETED SUBMISSION FORMS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

12. Judging

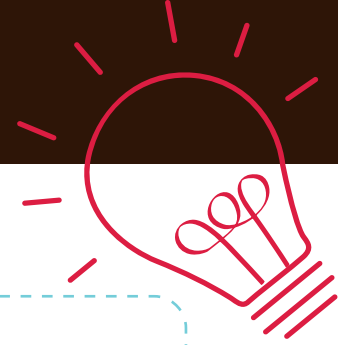

Entries will be judged by a panel of Insight staff and Australian authors. Judges' decisions will be final and no correspondence about the decision will be entered into.

13. Awards presentation

Participants will be notified by 1 November 2024 if their entry has been shortlisted. Prizes will be presented to the winners at a celebratory event in Melbourne, Victoria in December. If you enter the competition, we encourage you and your family to attend the awards presentation. Details of the event will be sent to shortlisted entrants prior to the awards presentation.

After the awards presentation, the prize winners' unedited stories may be published on Insight's website and on Insight's social media pages. Insight reserves the right to make the prize-winning entries available on Insight's website for public view.

Insight Publications acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the Country on which we meet and work, the Bunurong people of the Kulin Nation. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
